

ARE 5.0 Exam Preparatory

Objective

Provide students with access to high-quality preparatory materials to successfully complete the Architect Registration Examination (ARE 5.0) through a structured, phased approach.

Description

Students will receive access to reputable, third-party preparatory materials for the Architect Registration Examination (ARE 5.0), covering all six divisions: Practice Management (PcM), Project Management (PjM), Programming & Analysis (PA), Project Planning & Design (PPD), Project Development & Documentation (PDD), and Construction & Evaluation (CE).

Upon approval, students will initially be granted access to three (3) divisions, selected based on their individual study plan. Access to preparatory materials is valid for 1 year from activation, and students must activate their access code within 30 days of receipt.

Students are required to successfully complete the corresponding exams for the initial three divisions before applying for access to the remaining three divisions. Applications for the second phase will be considered in the following calendar year.

Funding for this track is limited.
